Telling Your Story Through The Details

Meet

Lissahn

Believe it or not, my love for romance novels started my journey into wedding planning. The ebb and flow of a good novel captured my heart, and in my mind, I was always able to vividly picture the most intricate details of the love story. It is this very passion that drives me to create the wedding of your dreams.

Whether my clients want something lavish and extravagant, unique and edgy, or something simple and chic, I take the time to walk you through each element of your wedding with extreme care and consideration.

I am excited to take the time and attention needed to make sure that you absolutely love everything about your wedding ceremony and reception. From design presentations and dress shopping to cake tastings and menu configurations, I am here to give you an absolute dreamy and delightful planning experience from inception to "I do"!

The Stiletto Experience

The Stiletto Experience is equivalent to full-service wedding planning. It is perfect for the client that knows exactly what type of wedding they want but has no time in their busy schedule to pull all of the details together while managing all of the logistics. This experience allows you to "leave it to the professionals" so that you can focus on other demanding responsibilities.

Armed with the knowledge of your wedding day vision, Enraptured Events is there to fully realize your day with a customized design concept with custom inspiration board, the securing of all your vendors, reviewing and negotiating of all contracts, managing your spending plan, along with so much more. In essence, all you have to do is show up!

The

Pump

Experience

The Pump Experience is equivalent to partial wedding planning. This experience allows us to work hand-in-hand and share the tasks and responsibilities of planning an amazing day! While we focus on all aspects of design and negotiating the design contracts, you're focused on securing other vendors, such as the venue and DJ.

Keeping your wedding day vision in mind, Enraptured Events is there to help realize your day with a customized design concept, the assistance in securing your vendors, reviewing and negotiating some contracts, and managing your budget. We will help keep you on task and help you pull it all together, ensuring that you have the day you've always dreamed of. In the end, you've played a big role in the day but running the show is all on us!

Building Your Dream Day

Using our collaborative tools, an online portal, and a customized floor plan, I meticulously create a design presentation of your wedding day from start to finish so you're able to get an idea of what your wedding day will look like. This is also the blueprint that our vendor partners will follow, ultimately culminating into the wedding of your dreams.

Working With Vendors

With the benefit of vendor selections and recommendations, design, budget review, contract negotiations, and a detailed timeline of your wedding day's execution, our full-service planning experience is tailored to get you from your vision to your dream day.

You will receive guidance along the way with a step by step guide on how your wedding day will progress. From 7AM hair and makeup to the 8PM bouquet toss, you will have a team of experts available to bring your vision to life.

The Process

Budget Drafting

It's all about the numbers!!! I will create a realistic, yet moving document, weighted based on what's most important to you, such as entertainment over decor and vice versa and design according. As we come in under budget in line items, they will be adjusted.

Design Presentation

We've discussed your vision and overall budget. Now, it's time to put it all on paper for your vendor partners. I create a detailed design presentation that will give you an idea of what your wedding day will look and feel like. This becomes the blueprint that gives our venue partners direction.

Venue/Vendor Selection

As the design presentation is being completed, we're searching for the perfect venue to celebrate your love story. After your venue has been secured, I'll create a tentative floor plan for your ceremony and reception, including an outline of where the décor will go.

Sit Back & Relax

While you're taking care of your every day responsibilities, I'll be hard at work obtaining proposals and negotiating contracts.. Just sit back, relax, and enjoy the process. Rest assured, I'll be with you every step of the way.

The Big Reveal!

After months of thoughtful planning, stark attention to detail, and harmonious collaboration between the two of us and the vendor team, we finally arrive at the moment we've all been waiting for. You and your new spouse walk into the room with closed eyes and smiles of hopeful anticipation. On the count of three, you open your eyes as I say "welcome to your reception" and we both experience the fulfillment of all your wedding day dreams.

A Few Testimonials

Lissahn was recommended to me by a close friend whose wedding she was coordinating and I immediately reached out to her. From the beginning, Lissahn was professional and kept the lines of communication open at all times. She was always available to answer any questions I had, big or small. We worked together on the vision for our wedding day and the execution exceeded my expectations. All the vendors Lissahn recommended were absolutely wonderful and made our wedding day, one we will remember forever.

Lissahn, Hester and Jamie, thank you all SO MUCH for ensuring our day was perfect. A thank you truly isn't enough to truly express the gratitude I have toward the Enraptured Events team. Our wedding day was the best day of my life thus far! I'll forever be a recommender of Lissahn & Enraptured Events.

Thank you Lissahn for making my wedding day one of the most beautiful experiences for my Husband and I as well as our guests. Your level of expertise and management skills are unmatched. You took control and handled every detail to perfection. You kept me calm, even when this process became overwhelming, and told me "I Got You" and you kept your word. Your team of vendors are the best in the business and they performed as promised on time and with professionalism. You even designed and delivered my wedding veil in less than 7 days before my wedding. You surround yourself with exceptional people and that is why I watched you grow to be one of Atlanta's top wedding planners. You are amazing and I could not have had a smoother wedding day without your assistance. Thank you from the bottom of my heart! Can't wait to see your magic in 2022!
